Sri P. S. K. Naidu.

Asst Secretary to Govt (Rets)

Bangalore.

for 18/11/50

Representation of P. N. Nambi, P.S. to Dewan

Submitted to Chief Secretary.

1) I beg to submit that the period of extension of vice granted to me will expire on 11th April 1950.

2) I have put in a service of more than 35 years during which period I served on the personal establishments of the Dewan and Members of Council. The duties in these places have been very hard and more onerous involving early and late hours attendance. It may also be mentioned here that my services were utilised for over 22 years in connection with the entertainment of guests and arrangements connected with the several State and Palace functions during Dasara and Birthday festivities, Vice regal Visists, Royal Marriages, All India Conferences, R.A. meetings, etc.

3) It may thus be seen that all my service of a long period of over 35 years has been spent in the interest of public service and in the discharge of very heavy onerous duties allowing me no respite or occasion to avail any kind of leave. During this long period of service I might have utilised about three months privilege leave only.

4) At the beginning of the year 1949 I was promoted as Assistant Secretary and was posted in charge of the duties of the Private Secretary to the Dewan. I was in receipt of a consolidated duty allowance of Rs 100/- as Private Secretary to the Dewan.

5) Even before I was in receipt of Duty Allowances in the Dewan's Office. Except for small periods of my service I was in receipt of duty allowance throughout the service. The Duty Allowance drawn by almost all in the Dewan's Office for long periods has been recently converted into Personal Allowance and likewise I request that the allowance drawn by me may also be kindly made into a Personal Allowance which may not go far even in enhancing my amount of pension, while it being a good appreciation for all the hard work I carried out so loyally and faithfully. I shall be highly grateful for this act of grace.

b) Submitted with reference to paras 1 to 5 of the note. Sri P.S.K. Nair was, as Superintendent, G.P.S. granted an extension of service by two years with effect from 12-4-48. During the extended period he was promoted as Asst Secretary and worked on temporary basis with effect from 1/1/49 and was posted as Private Secretary to Dewan. He has been permitted to retire with effect from 12/4/50 on the expiry of the period of term of extension granted to him.

7) Sri P.S.K. Nair was in receipt of DA of Rs 35/- PM as Superintendent of Dewan's Office and as Private Secretary to Dewan he was getting a Consolidated DA of Rs 100/- P.M with effect from 1/1/49 (the date on which he was posted as P.S to Dewan) He requests that the DA drawn by him may be treated as personal allowance as was done in the case of Officials of the Dewans Office.

8) It is not clear whether this Officer's request is to treat the allowance drawn by him as P.S to the Dewan (viz 100/-) as P.A or the allowance drawn by him as Supdt, Dewan's Office. In either case the request is inadmissible under the rules. As regards the former request, there is only instance of Sri V.V. Sundaram Asst Secretary to Govt, who was permitted to count the DA drawn by him during his service towards pension in the last 3 years of Consideration of the fact that he was retired exactly on the date on which the G.O reviving the scale pay of Gazetted Subordinate Officers came into effect and was thereby denied the benefit of enhanced pay (Collection not readily available). Similar grounds do not appear to exist in the case of Sri P.S.K. Raju to extend the above concession to him also.

9) As regards treating the DA of 357-P.M. drawn by him as Supdt of Dewan's Office the DA drawn by it is stated that almost all retired Officers of Dewans Office has been converted into personal allowance. This may be referred to the O.B for remarks with relevent previous references.

13 G.B. file no. E 23-48-15 relating to the conversion of Duty allowance as personal allowance in cases of Sriyuts K. Shamkaraiya and K. Rangaswamy, officials of the Dewan's office is placed below for perusal.

14 The request of Sri P. S. K. Naidu is that his D.A which he was drawing as Secy to the Dewan may be converted into personal allowance. Apparently his request is inadmissible. But there are instances both for and against his present case on cases of Sri N. V. Sundaram and Sri P. N. Krishnaswamy, his duty allowance drawn by them were ordered to be treated as personal allowance as a Special Case (the connected files are put up in some duty connection). In cases of Sri S. Hiranmaiya his request was to treat his duty allowance drawn by him as personal allowance was turned down.

15 The present case is different from Sri Sundaram's case. The duty allowance drawn by Sri N. V. Sundaram was ordered to count for his pension mainly on the following grounds:—

1) that Sri Sundaram was not granted any extension of service;

2) that he could not have the benefit of the revised grade pay of the Asst. Secretary, for work as he had to retire from service on his own date.

16 The duty allowance drawn by Sri P.N. Krishnaswamy was accepted to be treated as personal allowance on the following grounds:—

(1) that Sri Krishnaswamy was stagnating on the same pay for nearly 6 years and

(2) that the promotions taken along with him had better prospects than Sri Krishnaswamy.

17 Sri P. S. K. Naidu has had the following concessions:—

(1) the extension of service for a period of 2 years has been granted to this officer;

(2) the officer has been granted combined leave for 6 months from 8.2.50.

18 Sri P.S. K. Naidu has requested that the duty allowance drawn by him may be treated as personal allowance on the ground that the duty allowances drawn by the staff of the Devaris office have been accepted to be treated as personal allowances.

19 In this connection kind reference is invited to the discussions in O.B. File No.

COUNCIL NOTE.

SUBJECT:- (1) Proposal to permit Sri M. Rama Rao, Assistant Secretary to Government to count the Duty allowance for purpose of Pension - D.C.No.129/50-51.

(2) Proposal to permit Sri P.S.K. Naidu, Assistant Secretary to Government (on leave preparatory to retirement from service) to treat the Duty allowance as personal allowance D.C.No.130/50-51.

The Minister for Finance and Industries who is also in charge of the current duties of the Chief Minister has minuted on the above cases as follows:-

"I see that Sri J. Appaji Gowda has noted in Sri P.N. Krishnaswamy's case - possibly the first of its kind, that to treat the Duty allowance as part of pay would create inconvenient precedents, but yet as a special case in view of the long stagnation of the office, the Duty allowance was allowed to be counted for pension. Then came the case of Sri Sundaram of the Finance Department and another exception was made. Now come these two of Sri P.S.K. Naidu and Sri Rama Rao. My fear is that this will now bid fair to become the general rule, with each administrative Department finding similar justification to recommend each case. The Financial Secretary has said that these two may be the last of their kind - a hope which I ardently hope will come true. I may also hope but I am not sure that further exceptions will not be made. I wish the Council will consider this aspect of the case in both these cases."

The cases are therefore for consideration at a meeting of the Council.
